CHURCH PARTNERSHIP INFORMATION SHEET

Little Seeds for Churches

A short guide for pastors, children's ministry leaders and Sunday school teachers.

Churches often look for books that teach children Scripture simply, spark conversation at home, and fit naturally into a lesson. Little Seeds books are written for that purpose: short, picture-led stories rooted in the Bible, with themes children can remember.

WAYS A CHURCH MIGHT USE THE BOOKS

- Sunday school: open or close a lesson with a read-aloud and a memory verse
- Children's ministry: use a book's theme as a starting point for a short lesson, prayer or craft
- Families: suggest a book for bedtime or family devotion time
- Church library or resource table: keep copies where parents can borrow or find them

WHAT IS AVAILABLE TODAY

- Three published picture books, available on Amazon, with exact links on our website
- Free reading and discussion ideas in this kit: teaching guides, session plans, discussion questions and memory verse activities
- Direct conversation with the author about your needs

WHAT WE DO NOT YET HAVE

Little Seeds is an independent publisher. We have not established bulk pricing, a distribution program, formal partnerships or institutional endorsements, and we will not suggest otherwise. If your church would like to explore something, we will tell you plainly what is and is not possible.

GETTING STARTED

1. Read one of the books together as a team.
2. Choose the book that fits your next lesson or season.
3. Try one 20–30 minute session from this kit.
4. Tell us what worked and what you need: mutabazi3907@gmail.com.

CHRISTIAN SCHOOL PARTNERSHIP INFORMATION SHEET

Little Seeds for Christian Schools

A short guide for teachers, principals, chaplains and librarians.

Picture books give teachers a natural way to build reading enjoyment, vocabulary and conversation while connecting character and faith. Little Seeds books are designed for ages 3–8 and pair biblical truth with simple stories and clear themes.

WAYS A SCHOOL MIGHT USE THE BOOKS

- Read-aloud time: share one book over several short sessions
- Bible and chapel: connect a story to a memory verse and a short discussion
- Character education: use themes such as generosity, gratitude, courage and care for creation
- Writing and art: invite children to draw, retell in their own words or write a thank-you
- Library: add the books to a Christian or early-readers shelf

CONNECTIONS TO THE SCHOOL DAY

- Listening and speaking: discussion questions for each book
- Early literacy: picture walks, repeated phrases, vocabulary from the story
- Social and spiritual growth: sharing, trust, thankfulness, caring for others

PLEASE NOTE

Our guides are suggestions, not a curriculum, and we do not make claims about academic standards or learning outcomes. Teachers know their classrooms best; adapt freely. We are a new independent publisher without formal school partnerships, endorsements or bulk programs at this time.

NEXT STEPS

1. Read the books and decide which suits your class.
2. Try one session plan (page 11) as a read-aloud.
3. Share your questions or ideas with us. We would like to learn from you.

BIG IDEA

When we feel afraid, we can trust God, who cares for us, and He often helps us through the people who love us.

MEMORY VERSE

“What time I am afraid, I will trust in thee.”

TAKE-HOME IDEA

Draw or name one person who helps you feel safe, and thank them. Pray together: “God, when I am afraid, help me to trust You.”

CLOSING PRAYER STARTER

Dear God, thank You for caring for us. When we are afraid, help us to trust You and to ask for help. Amen.

AWAITING MANUSCRIPT VERIFICATION

This guide is based only on the published book description (Tuli, Mama, losing her way, being found and helped home). It has not yet been checked against the full Book 3 manuscript.

Classroom Reading Guides

Each guide follows a simple routine: before, while and after reading. Use what suits your class.

The Little Boy Who Learned to Share

BEFORE READING
Show the cover. Ask: “What do you think this book is about?” Introduce the word “share.”

WHILE READING
Pause to let children say what they notice in the pictures. Ask: “What do you think Kito will do?”

AFTER READING
Retell the story in order. Ask how Kito felt after he shared his mangoes and what he discovered when he shared with Amara. Say the memory verse.

CONNECTIONS
Writing: “One way I can share is…” Art: draw something you can share. Character: generosity and kindness.

AWAITING MANUSCRIPT VERIFICATION

The Little Bird Who Lost Her Way Home

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Questions for Each Book

Use a few questions, not all. Wait, listen, and ask “Why do you think so?”

BOOK 1

The Little Boy Who Learned to Share

1. What does Kito love?
2. What does Kito decide to do when Amara asks for a mango?
3. How did Kito feel after he shared his mangoes?
4. What wisdom does Mama share?
5. What lesson from the Bible does Kito hear?
6. What did Kito discover when he shared with Amara?
7. What could you share this week?
8. How can we show kindness to someone who has less?

BOOK 2

Who Made Everything?

1. Who made the heavens and the earth?
2. What did God make on the first day? The second? The fourth?
3. What did God make on the fifth day?
4. Why did God rest on the seventh day?
5. In whose image did God make people? Why does that matter?
6. Who owns the earth?
7. How can we care for what God made?
8. What can you thank God for today?

BOOK 3

The Little Bird Who Lost Her Way Home

AWAITING MANUSCRIPT VERIFICATION

1. What happens to Tuli at the start of the story?
2. How do you think Tuli feels?
3. What does Mama do when she hears Tuli call?
4. Who helps you when you feel afraid or lost?
5. What does the story show about God’s care and protection?
6. What can we do when we feel afraid?
7. Who can we ask for help?
8. What gives you hope?

Three kinds of questions work well: remember (what happened?), think (why do you think so?) and apply (what can I do?).

BIBLE MEMORY VERSE ACTIVITIES

Learning the Verses Together

Short, repeated and playful works best for ages 4–8. King James Version.

"It is more blessed to give than to receive."

Acts 20:35 (KJV)

BOOK 2

"In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth."

Genesis 1:1 (KJV)

BOOK 3

"What time I am afraid, I will trust in thee."

Psalm 56:3 (KJV)

EIGHT WAYS TO LEARN A VERSE

1. Echo it

Say one phrase at a time and let children echo it back.

2. Add actions

Make a simple motion for each phrase, then say it with the motions.

3. Hide a word

Write the verse on a board; erase one word at a time and say it again.

4. Puzzle it

Cut the verse into pieces and let children put them in order.

5. Sing or chant

Use a clapping rhythm or a simple tune.

6. Draw it

Draw a picture that shows the verse, then say it to a friend.

7. Pass it on

Say the verse to a partner, then to a family member at home.

8. Pray it

Turn the verse into a one-sentence prayer.

A GENTLE APPROACH

Do not pressure children. Celebrate effort and keep the verse close to everyday life: say it at bedtime, in the car or before a meal.

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY ACTIVITY SUGGESTIONS

Ideas for Children's Ministry

Simple, low-cost ideas. Adapt them for your group, space and ages.

Book 1 · The Little Boy Who Learned to Share

- Sharing basket: children bring or draw one thing they could share.
- Kindness cards: decorate cards for someone in the church.
- Mango fruit-and-share time (check allergies first).

Book 2 · Who Made Everything?

- Creation walk: look for things God made and say thank you.
- Days of creation: a mural with one panel for each day.
- Plant a seed in a cup and care for it together.

Book 3 · The Little Bird Who Lost Her Way Home

AWAITING MANUSCRIPT VERIFICATION

- Bird's home craft: paper nests and birds.
- People who help me: draw and thank a helper.
- Calm-down corner: quiet breathing and a short prayer.

PLEASE PLAN FOR SAFETY

Check allergies and age suitability for any food or materials, follow your church's child safety policies, and keep activities optional and encouraging.

PARENT AND TEACHER GUIDANCE

Reading Together Well

BEFORE YOU READ

- Read the book yourself first and notice where you might pause.
- Choose a calm time and place. Let the child hold the book if they like.

WHILE YOU READ

- Read slowly and let children study the pictures.
- Ask short questions: “What do you see?” “What do you think will happen?”
- Welcome every answer, and let the child lead where possible.

AFTER YOU READ

- Ask one or two open questions from the guides, and listen.
- Say the memory verse together and choose one small thing to do.
- Read it again another day. Repeating a book is a good thing.

TALKING ABOUT FAITH

- Use simple words. “God made us” and “God cares for us” are enough.
- It is fine to say “I don’t know. Let’s find out together.”
- Point to the Bible verse in each book and invite questions.

WHEN FEELINGS ARE BIG

Books about fear, sharing or loss can bring up strong feelings. Comfort first, then encourage. Notice what a child does well, and avoid pushing a child to “be brave.”

DIFFERENT READERS

Children read at different paces. Pre-readers can look at pictures and retell; emerging readers can point to words; older children can read aloud or write a response. Offer help without pressure.

BOOK SPONSORSHIP INFORMATION SHEET

Sponsor a Book

A simple way to help a child receive a book.

Some children have limited access to books. Individuals, families, churches, schools and organizations can help by buying a copy of a Little Seeds book on Amazon and giving it to a child, a family, a Sunday school class, a school or a library of their choice.

SPONSOR A BOOK
on our website

HOW IT WORKS TODAY

1. Choose a book from the Sponsor a Book page on our website.
2. Buy a copy on Amazon, as with any ordinary purchase.
3. Give it to a child, family, class or library you choose.

IDEAS FOR CHURCHES AND SCHOOLS

- Invite members to bring a book for a child in your community.
- Place a book in a Sunday school class, a nursery or a church library.
- Give a book to a family at a baptism, dedication or birthday.

PLEASE BE CLEAR ABOUT WHAT THIS IS

Amazon purchases are ordinary purchases. They are not charitable donations and are not tax-deductible. Little Seeds does not currently collect donations, run a free distribution program or promise deliveries. If you want to explore a larger sponsorship, please contact us and we will talk honestly about what is possible.

OUR LONG-TERM HOPE

We hope to develop a Little Seeds Reading Initiative one step at a time. We will announce a program only when it is established.

Date: _____

Dear _____,

Thank you for caring for the children in your community. I am writing to introduce Little Seeds Children's Books and to invite a conversation.

Little Seeds is an independent children's publisher. Our books bring together biblical teaching, meaningful stories and practical learning for children ages 3–8, and we currently have three published picture books: The Little Boy Who Learned to Share, Who Made Everything? A Little Book About God the Creator, and The Little Bird Who Lost Her Way Home.

I created a short partnership kit with reading guides, discussion questions, Bible memory verse ideas and session plans that your church, school or library is welcome to use with the books. I would be glad to hear about the children you serve and how a book might fit alongside your work.

To be clear: we are a young publisher and do not yet have formal partnerships, bulk programs or endorsements. Writing to us creates no commitment. I would simply value the chance to listen, to learn from you and to share what we can offer.

If you would like to talk, please reach me at the address above. Thank you for your time, and for the seeds you are planting in children's lives.

With gratitude,

Joseph Mutabazi
